Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election of Group I, claims 1-21 and 36-38 in the reply filed on 12/10/17 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

IN THE CLAIMS

Cancel claims 22-35.

In claim 37, lines 2 and 3, delete "to about 150° C" and substitute thereof – at 150° C--.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Prior art, such as Patterson et al. (USPN 6,784,230), teach thermoplastic resin compositions comprising cellulose in combination with lubricants. However, there is no teaching or suggestion of the specific blend of lubricants required in the present claims.

Other prior art, such as Hawrylko (USPN 5,536,462) and Elk (USPN 4,132,691), teach thermoplastic resins comprising lubricant combinations of oxidized polyethylene and ester wax, but they do not teach the amide wax in combination with the two lubricants in the same composition, nor do they teach or suggest the reinforcing cellulose resin component.

Hayama et al. (JP 63115793) does teach a wax mixture comprising at least three kinds of wax selected from a group comprising an ester wax, an oxidized polyethylene wax and an amide wax, but they teach the mixture as an additive in a recoding material and they do not teach or suggest a cellulose-reinforced thermoplastic resin.

None of the prior art was found to teach an extrudable composition comprising a thermoplastic resin, a reinforcing agent comprising cellulose, an oxidized polyethylene; an ester wax and an amide wax.

Thus, claims 1-21 and 36-38 are allowed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Dr. Kelechi C. Egwim whose telephone number is (571) 272-1099. The examiner can normally be reached on M-T (7:30-6:00).
